"When I'll go back to Germany I will let all the impressions of India sink in and will have many new ideas for writing songs." - CassMae

At the age of three, CassMae became deeply fascinated by Chopin, so she started improvising on the piano, playing her first melodies and eventually singing her own songs. Her musical journey has led her to win multiple awards (including the UK Songwriting Content (category POP), Dein Song Christmas Special (ZDF)), with performances in prestigious venues including the German Parliament (in front of Jürgen Dusel and Dr. Angela Merkel). In September 2023 she was called the "German daughter of India" by Narendra Modi who talked about CassMae in his 105th episode of his radio show Maan Ki Baat for singing in various Indian languages.
